

Toilet Training Pathway

If toilet readiness identified:

- Implement collaborative Toileting Programme with family (give health information and support)
- Assess for continence containment products, as appropriate, following guidelines
- Toileting Programme to be reviewed every two weeks by family

If toilet readiness not identified:

- Implement care to ensure social continence
- Assess for continence containment products, as appropriate, following guidelines

Supporting Health Information – Toilet Training

Websites:

- ERIC (Education and Resources for Improving Childhood Continence)
Tel: 0845 370 8008 <http://www.eric.org.uk>
- The National Autistic Society (2003) Toilet training Helpline Tel: 0845 070 4004 <http://www.nas.org.uk/>
- The Down’s Syndrome Association Helpline Tel: 0845 230 0372 www.downs-syndrome.org.uk

Leaflets and Books:

Subject	Title	Source	Guidance for use
Learning Disability	Continence promotion for children with learning disability	Synergy Healthcare Telephone: 0161 624 5641	Helpful advice for carers about toilet training
Learning Disability	Toileting Children with Learning Disability	Frontline of learning disability http://www.frontline-ireland.com/article-46-toiletingchildren.html	2 page article, concise, well written
Toilet training	Jack’s New Trousers	PromoCon	Multi-sensory interactive storytelling resource to assist in the toilet training of teenagers with a learning difficulty
Autism	Toilet Training for Individuals with Autism & Related Disorders	ERIC	A comprehensive guide for parents and teachers
Developmental Delay	Toilet Training for Young Children with	Online PDF www.idsc.sa.gov.au/publications/data/pdfs/conf-paper-Toilet-Training.pdf	2003 Conference paper –Govt of S.Australia

	Developmental Delay
Toilet Training	Understanding Children – Toilet Training	Online PDF	Easy to read 10 steps to toilet training plus other information
Toilet Training	Talk about going to the toilet By J. Rogers	Synergy Healthcare Tele: 0161 624 5641	By June Rogers Story book and activity book
Toilet Training	Potty and Toilet training.. a helpful guide for parents	ERIC	For parents

All websites recommended have a HON (Health On the Net) code approval or other recognized web quality checks