

Patient need/ type of service required:	Team to refer to:	Who can refer:	How to refer:
Acute medical needs as an alternative to hospital admission. Patient requires to be safe at home and patient/ family happy for acute medical care under H@H	Hospital at Home	GP, SAS, LUCS, ANP (within GP practice)	Referrals through Flow Centre on: 03000 134 000 Option 1, then Option 4. Once accepted by Flow Centre SCI Gateway referral needs completed at: ELCH >> Geriatric Medicine >> EL Hospital at Home Please do not send a SCI Gateway referral unless the referral has already been accepted by Flow Centre as the team may not see it and the referral will not be acted on. Please see the East Lothian HAH page for more information
Non-acute medical issues where advice could be sufficient	ELCH MOE Advice	GP practice/ hospital clinicians	Refer via SCI-Gateway: ELCH >> Geriatric Medicine >> Geriatric Medicine Advice
Non-acute medical issues, could attend as outpatient (including Parkinson's)	ELCH MOE Outpatients	GP practice/ hospital clinicians	Refer via SCI-Gateway: ELCH >> Geriatric Medicine >> LI Basic Sign Referral
Prevention of Admission (Services accessible via the Single Point of Access (SPOA) POA pathway include PT, OT, and Social Work)	ELHSCP SPOA	Any health or social care professional	East Lothian Rehabilitation Service Point of Contact 01620 642834 Please see guidance on East Lothian Prevention of Admission (POA) for details on opening times / referral times
OT and/or PT assessment for equipment – non urgent, for housebound patients only	ELHSCP SPOA	Any health or social care professional	East Lothian Rehabilitation Service Point of Contact 01620 642834
Increasing care needs (can be urgent or non-urgent)	EL Integrated Rehabilitation Team	Any health or social care professional	East Lothian Rehabilitation Service Point of Contact 01620 642834
Community bed for end-of-life care	HBCCC (ELCH Ward 1)	GP/ DN/ H@H	Referral to be emailed. Please see guidance on ELCH Lothian HBCCC referrals (ELCH Ward 1) page
Occupational therapy only	Community OT	Any health or social care professional	Please see guidance from East Lothian Council Requesting an Occupational Therapy home assessment – scroll down the page to see options for Professional Referral
Social work only	Social work	Any health or social care professional	East Lothian Council Contact Centre 01875 824 309 Please see guidance from East Lothian Council Contact Adult Social Work Services
PT only (including domiciliary)	East Lothian Rehabilitation Service	GP	Refer via SCI-Gateway: AHP - Physiotherapy >> East Lothian – East Lothian Rehabilitation Service >> LI EL Physiotherapy Please see guidance on East Lothian Community Physiotherapy (Domiciliary)
Dietetics	Community Dieticians	Any health care professional (GP/DN/hospital SN)	Refer via SCI-Gateway: AHP - Dietetics >> East Lothian – ELCH>> LI Dietetics
Speech and Language Therapy	East Lothian Adult Community SLT Service		Refer via SCI Gateway: AHP - Speech & Language Therapy >> East & Mid Lothian - Adult >> LI Eating Drinking&Swallowing OR LI Communication